

Better. Together.

Mary Lou Retton

Mon General Spokesperson

We're very excited to introduce our new brand campaign for Mon General Hospital, and we're extremely honored to announce Mary Lou Retton as our official spokesperson. As a native and current resident of North Central West Virginia, Mary Lou represents everything that Mon General Hospital is dedicated to be:

It's about excellence.

It's about performance, success, and a commitment to greatness.

It's about building a legacy that our community can be proud of.

It's about inspiring our community to be the very best it can be.

It's about holding ourselves to the very highest of standards, and striving to exceed those expectations.

It's about exceptional people, training, and facilities coming together for a single goal: to make you Better. Together.

At Mon General, we are proud to be your hometown hospital, but we're also a regional referral center with expertise in:

Cardiology and Cardiothoracic Surgery

Orthopedics

Gastroenterology

General Surgery

Urology

Obstetrics

Oncology

Gynecology

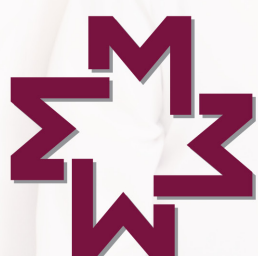

Emergency Services

General Medicine

Gynecologic Oncologic Surgery

Women's Services

We've made many recent changes to our facilities and we look forward to showing them to you, so you'll be seeing a lot of Mary Lou in the next several months. You'll be hearing her voice on the radio, and seeing her energetic smile on TV and in the newspapers. Smile back, because we're all Better. Together.
